
What WordShare Services can do for you

You are a translator:

- You would like to take a course on topics concerning Old Testament translation, but you do not have the money to travel and study elsewhere;
- You would like to get information quickly about specific exegetical and translation problems;
- You need more information about Bible background topics.

You are a consultant or a translation advisor:

- In the heat of a checking session, you realize you need to do more research on some matter, and yet you do not really have the time or resources on hand;
- You are developing a resource or writing a book on some translation issue and would like some feedback;
- You see a need for a specific kind of resource that is not yet available to the translator.

You are a translation coordinator or head of a translation project:

- You need a consultant to check a book of the Bible;
- You are looking for resource persons for an OT translation workshop;
- You have just recruited new OT translators who need training.
